

Press Release

TWIN M SUPERMARKET TRANSFERS OWNERSHIP

Franconia, NH. CenterPoint Business Advisors, Inc. is pleased to announce the sale of the Twin M Supermarket in Pittsfield, NH.

The Twin M Supermarket offers local residents and tourists a convenient and affordable option for finding quality groceries. Since 1950 this store has offered shoppers a great variety of competitively priced groceries, perishables, beer and wine in downtown Pittsfield.

After operating the store since 2004, Karl and Nicole Lennon have decided to devote more time to their young family. Karl will continue to operate and grow his private security firm that serves customers in New Hampshire and Northern Massachusetts.

The store has been purchased by Patrick and Michelle Collins. The Collins family owns and operates three convenience stores in Central and Southeastern New Hampshire. The couple plans to leverage their experience at operating grocery stores to heighten the shopping experience at Twin M, which will be rebranded as the P&M Market. They will be making numerous upgrades to the equipment, building, and product lines over the next several months. Customers will be rewarded with a new shopping experience at competitive prices.

Jeffrey Paquet of CenterPoint Business Advisors, Inc. in Franconia, NH represented Karl and Nicole Lennon in this transfer and assisted the buyers with due diligence, business planning, and financing application. CenterPoint is a “Preferred Provider” of Associated Grocers of New England and has transferred the ownership of numerous convenience and grocery stores throughout New Hampshire.
